

DAILY DRENCH

SCOPE 2007 May 25-27, 2007 Blue Springs Scout Reserve, Acton, Ontario, Canada

Volume 4 - Monday Morning, May 28, 2007

May 27, 2007

To all our Canadian Scouting friends;

Having arrived to such a warm welcome such a short time ago, we are sad that it has to come to end so soon but we have to return home. The only thing that would lighten our hearts is taking the opportunity to invite our new (and old) friends in Canadian Scouting to visit us in one years time, commencing May 22nd, 2008 to allow us an opportunity to return your kind hospitality. The camp and activities will take place at Briarwood Day Camp in Buckingham, Bucks County, Pennsylvania. We look forward to the opportunity to share our friendship and brotherhood with you again and continue to create memories of sharing new Scouting Adventures.

Camp starts to empty out as gear is packed up and campsites are broken down.

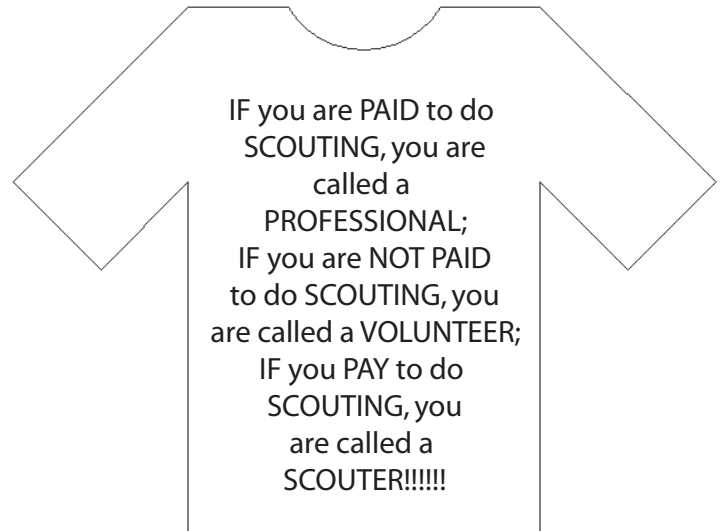

Life can now return to normal for the local wildlife. Luckily this little fellow was rescued from one of the camps roadways and returned to his natural habitat - one of the creeks running through Blue Springs S.R.
